

Disposable sterile hypodermic needles

21G - 0,8X50 mm - Verde

Sterile, disposable hypodermic needles fit into Luer or Luer Lock cones and comply with the requirements of EN ISO 80369-7.

The color code of the barrel is in accordance with the EN ISO 6009 standard and allows the identification of the needle gauge.

Sterilized with 10% ethylene oxide + 90% CO₂; validated according to EN ISO 11135.

Range of hypodermic needles and infusion sets that ensure minimal trauma during penetration thanks to triple sharpening.

All elements of the needle are specifically treated to ensure a painless injection

Characteristics of the components:

Cannula : AISI 304 stainless steel; diameter according to EN ISO 9626 and length according to EN ISO 7864.

Lubricant : silicone for medical use.

Barrel : colored transparent polypropylene.

Needle cover : transparent polypropylene.

Cannula assembled to the barrel with epoxy resin.

Blister (sterile barrier system): medical paper - plastic film.

Packs of 100 pieces.

Packaging: 50 packs. from 100 pieces

Other size needles available on request (diameter x length)

Code	Description	Caliber	Dimensions mm	Color	Pieces per pack.	Packaging
4370121	Disposable sterile hypodermic needles	21G	0,8X50	Green	100	50x10